Locally Owned and Operated.

Welcome to the 37th Athens Invitational Marching Festival! This event provides an exciting performance showcase for outstanding bands throughout the region and we are thrilled to have so many talented bands performing today. We would like to thank the Athens Band Boosters, Downtown Kiwanis and Chauncey-Dover Lions for their sponsorship of our event. Many individuals from these organizations have worked tirelessly over the past several months to provide our competing bands with an enjoyable experience today. We especially want to thank Leisa Ostermann, the chairperson of our Invitational committee, for her work in organizing today's event. The dedication of the band parents and community members has allowed Athens High School to host this wonderful festival for the past 37 years.

This year marks our first competition in the newly remodeled R. Basil Rutter Field at Scott Riggs and Family Stadium. This wonderful facility is the product of generosity from many community members and organization, and we are delighted to have this new state-of-the-art turf facility for your band's performance today. We'd like to express our personal gratitude to the organizations, businesses, and members in the community for their help in this stadium's development.

We wish the best of luck to all of the bands. May you have the best performance of the season thus far! To all the families, friends, and other spectators, you are in store for a day of wonderful marching and music making. We hope you enjoy it!

Sincerely,
Aaron Backes and Brandon Lias
Directors, Athens High School Band

OMEA COMPETITION RULES

Marching band classification is determined by student enrollment in grades 10–12.

Class AA: 901 and above

Class A: 501–900

Class B: 301–500

Class C: 300 and fewer

Any band may participate in Festival performance and not receive ratings or rankings. A band may enter a higher classification but not a lower one.

JUDGING CATEGORIES

Music

The function of the music evaluation is to determine the musical performance as perceived from the vantage point of the audience. The judgment of technical accuracy, intonation, rhythmic accuracy, and tone quality is to be made with the consideration of content and exposure of the performers.

General Effect

General Effect takes into account all of those elements in the band's performance which collectively combine to display the unit's total effectiveness and impressiveness. Judges will consider what the band is doing, how they are doing it, and what variety is utilized throughout the program.

Visual Effect

All visual elements (winds, percussion and auxiliary) are considered in the evaluation of the ensemble. Judges will evaluate the visual content of the program as well as how the performers realize the written content in relationship to how the visual program serves to complement and elevate the musical program. The construction of the program, in combination with the performance will determine the achievement level.

Timing and Penalties

Each band will be scheduled a 15-minute time block. Show time must be a minimum of 7 minutes and a maximum of 11 minutes. The performance begins with the first sound of music or first step after the official announcement. The end of the performance is defined as the last audible sound on the performance field immediately after the completion of its performance. Each band is given 13 minutes to pre-place, warm-up, and perform its show. The final 2 minutes of the 15-minute block is designated as a quiet zone.

RATINGS

RATING I – An outstanding performance, with very few errors.

RATING II – An unusual performance in many respects but not worthy of the highest rating.

RATING III – An acceptable performance but not outstanding showing accomplishments and marked promise.

RATING IV – A poor performance showing many errors or poor conception.

RATING V – A very poor performance indicating deficiencies in most of the essential factors and indicating that careful attention should be given to the fundamentals of good performance.

THE DECISION OF THE JUDGES IS FINAL.

Please show consideration for all of our performers.
Do not enter or exit the stands during a performance.
Please silence all cell phones and pagers.
Applause is permitted and encouraged :)

Good Luck Athens!
